

For the woman who loves the finer things in life, blinged-out accessories are necessities. This season, surprise her with all things beautiful and bejeweled.

06_DIAMOND RING

Outshining the bedazzled Sidekick cells is the latest from the Vertu Signature Diamonds collection—the Vertu Pink Diamond Signature phone is made from 18K rose gold and sparkles like the heavens thanks to 7.2 carats of pink and white diamonds pavé in flower patterns that border the phone ($73,000, Neiman Marcus, Plaza Frontenac, 314.567.9811.).

07_WATCH AND YEARN

With a white rubber bracelet that contains a single row of sapphire crystals and a bezel set with 44 diamonds, the posh Dior Chistal Rubber Watch is, hands-down, the best reason to wear white after Labor Day ($2,850 at eluxury.com).

08_GO FOR THE GOLD

What a Girl Wants Fine Jewelry offers some of the hottest trends in diamond, semi-precious and 18K gold for half the price of retailers, including selections from Europe and N.Y.C.'s 47th Street diamond and jewelry district. Choose from hot pieces like 18K gold necklaces by S. Aufrichtig or these glitzy 18K gold and diamond and citrine earrings ($$1,800, 314.504.8604, whatagirlwantsjewelry.com).

09_CRÈME DE LA CREAM

The miracle cream with a cult following just got even more luxe. Upgrade her regular lifting and firming regimen with La Prairie's limited-edition (only 645 were made) Jeweled Skin Caviar Luxe Cream, tucked inside a blinged-out case adorned with 2,400 Swarovski crystals ($2,000, laprairie.com). For more everyday luxury, try a limited-edition 5.2-ounce jar for a mere $900.
